

Rob Ring

ROB RING has served as an educator in Colorado for the past 24 years. He is the Superintendent of Schools for Weld Re-9 School District – a position he has held for the past nine years. He has served on a number of education-related committees and boards including the Rocky Mountain Guardian Angels Board of Directors. Ring was also chair of the Centennial Board of Cooperative Education Services (BOCES) Superintendents Advisory Council. Bright Futures is of particular interest to Ring because of his desire to increase the number of students entering certificate and associate programs leading to positions in skilled labor.
