

Debi Brilla

DEBI BRILLA has worked for North Coast Truck Leasing for 32 years having started out as a secretary and working her way up to the General Manager of the Trucking Division. Brilla has been a foster parent for the past 19.5 years, and since it is very important to her that her foster kids interact with the community, they often volunteer with Relay for Life, Alzheimer's Walk, United Way's Day of Caring, the Children's Festival and Cinco de Mayo. Brilla has been involved with many organizations within Weld County but currently spends her time volunteering with the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), Northern Colorado Latino Chamber of Commerce (NCLCC), Cinco de Mayo Committee, Assistance League of Greeley and Aims Community College Criminal Justice Advisory Committee.
