

Bob Small

Bob is a retired military veteran with over thirty one years of dedicated service to his country, both as an active duty member and a reservist. He began his military career with the United States Navy and enlisted in 1978 as a delayed entry candidate at the Navy Recruiting Office in Greeley Colorado. During the twenty seven years he served in the U.S. Navy, one of the important military milestones Bob achieved in his military career was earning his “Navy Air Crewman” wings as a Flight Engineer serving on the U.S. Navy’s P-3C maritime patrol aircraft.

In March 2011, Bob assumed the duties as an official employee of Aims Community College as the Department of Veterans Affairs School Certifying Official for the college working in the Student Financial Aid Department. During his time as the SCO for Aims, his duties had expanded to assist incoming veteran students and their family members with their educational goals. In addition to his duties as the SCO, he is a Student Financial Aid Advisor as well as providing additional resource information to veteran and active duty students and their dependents.
