

Dan Turnbeaugh

DAN TURNBEAUGH served seven years in the US Navy before separating and using the Montgomery GI Bill for his post-secondary education. He graduated from UNC with his Masters in Clinical Counseling before returning to his alma mater to serve as the Director of Veterans Services. Turnbeaugh is a passionate advocate for military students and enjoys providing any resource that will allow them to reach their social and educational goals. He joined the Bright Futures board to ensure veterans have every opportunity to be successful.
