

Mitch Anderson

MITCH ANDERSON first learned about farming through his father and grandfathers, which sparked a strong interest in agriculture. While obtaining a degree in Agricultural Business, Anderson worked on many farms to learn more about the industry. After college, he began his career in Nebraska, then Iowa and from there, he was offered a position at Agland, Inc. in Eaton. Anderson worked his way up through the company and in 2002, he was promoted to General Manager. In 2012, Agland, Inc. acquired American Pride and became known as Agfinity. Anderson is currently the CEO of Agfinity.
